Director, Marketing & Communications

Location: Europe; with Amsterdam, the Netherlands preferred
Eligibility to work in the European Union is required for this position.

The Cradle to Cradle Products Innovation Institute is looking for an exceptional individual to join our highly dedicated and talented team to accelerate adoption and maximize the positive impact of the Cradle to Cradle Certified™ Products Program worldwide.

The Cradle to Cradle Products Innovation Institute is dedicated to powering innovation for the circular economy through products that have a positive impact on people and planet. As the standard-setting organization and certification body for the Cradle to Cradle Certified Product Standard, the Institute works closely with leading organizations worldwide to guide and validate their efforts to apply the principles of material health, circular economy, climate protection, water and soil stewardship, and social fairness to product design and manufacturing.

The Marketing and Communications Director will lead planning and execution of global marketing and communications activities for the Cradle to Cradle Products Innovation Institute. The position is responsible for setting strategic direction and carrying out day-to-day, operational activities including management of the Institute’s public relations, stakeholder communications, web site and social media presence. The Director will work closely with the Institute’s management team and staff to develop and implement effective communication and marketing strategies for increasing the visibility, understanding and adoption of the Cradle to Cradle Certified framework for designing and making safe, circular and responsible products. The Director will also support companies across all sectors to highlight Cradle to Cradle Certified products in marketing materials and communications channels. The Director will be responsible for creating dynamic content for the Institute’s web site and social media channels, as well as for executing marketing and communications projects from conception through completion, on time and on budget.
