Product description: IPG’s Exfilm® Exfilmplus® Exfilmfresh® Shrink Film polyolefin heat shrink films are used for product packaging and protection. ExfilmPlus films are used for high-aesthetic retail overwrap, multipack bundling, and parcel shipment packaging. The films are designed to be FDA compliant for direct food contact and can also be printed for security, branding and other marketing needs. Engineered to be high yield performance films, ExfilmPlus products are made with crosslinking technology adding to their overall strength and operational range. Films are available in a broad selection of gauges starting at 35 gauge (.00035”) all the way up to 150 gauge (.0015”).
